THE HIRED MAN

From HOWARD GOODALL, composer of the award-winning hit West End musical BEND IT LIKE BECKHAM, and the much-loved author and presenter MELVYN BRAGG, comes THE HIRED MAN.

An epic saga of love and family spanning 30 years, The Hired Man is set in the farming communities of Cumbria. John Tallentire and his wife Emily want to break free from being poor farm workers – Hired Men – but the choices are few. Going to work in the dark and dangerous coal mines, or enlisting in the army and fighting in the trenches of the Great War. From heights of passion to dark despair, with music which moves from heart-rending to joyous and from poignant to celebratory, The Hired Man is ultimately a life-affirming experience.

There is a £1 per ticket discount on full price tickets for groups of 10 or more, paid in advance of show week.
