The Pirates of Penzance

Dropping anchor in Maidenhead this May is one of Gilbert and Sullivan's funniest and most popular operas, The Pirates of Penzance. With a bunch of hilariously incompetent pirates, a squad of equally incompetent policemen, a Major General promoted way above his abilities and his bevy of beautiful daughters, it features the much-loved songs "A Policeman's Lot is Not a Happy One", "I Am the Very Model of a Modern Major General" and "Poor Wandering One". Directed by Lucy Seymour, who was at the helm for our NODA award-winning production of The Mikado, and MD'd by David Hazeldine who conducted our hugely popular production of Carousel, this will be an evening of uproarious comedy, witty words and marvellous music.

So don't miss the boat - get on board and book your tickets now!

There is a £1 per ticket discount on full price tickets for groups of 10 or more, paid in advance of show week.
